Larboard Main Hack
Starb. Side

The following Sermon is from an infidel yet it one of the most Christian sermons we ever read The preacher was Voltaire

"A hundred thousand mad animals whose heads are covered with hats, advance to kill or to be killed by the like number of their fellow mortals covered with turbans.
By this Strange procedure they want at best, to decide whether a tract of land to which none of theme have any claim, shall belong to a certain man whome they call Sultan or to another whom they call Czar. neither of whom ever saw or will see the spot so furiously contended for: and very few of those creatures who thus mutually butcher each Other, ever beheld the animal for-whom they cut each Others throats

From time immemorial this has bin the way of mankind almost over all the earth what an effect of madness is this and how deservedly might a Supreem Being crush to atoms this earth by Bath, the bloody mist of such ridiculous murderers

The Sea ~~The Sea~~

I have bin to the Sea when the tempest was high,
When the black clouds were rushing in wrath through the sky
When the lightnings red flash on the billow was glancing,
And the white foam like light on its bosom was dancing.
When the Strong Ship, unmanned, over the water was flying
And when bold hearts were quailing, and stout hearts were dying.
I have bin to the Sea when its bosom was calm—
When the breeze that swept over me was laden with balm
And the Stars, as they looked from the deep azure skye Seemed like angels of love in their dwellings on high And I have gazed on their beauty, so pure, and so blest Till their calm, holy light has been shed over my breast
The dark scene, where the flag of the Storm was unfurled
And its folds Spread abroad over the Shuddering world Like a pall—was a type to my Spirit of life
When the dark passions wake in their maddening Strife
And when all that is good though not lost seems to be Wildly tossed like the foam on that turbulent Sea.
And those waves as they Sunk in their beauty to rest Quivering gently, beneath the Almighty's behest Which so calmed their wilde fury, an emblem would seem
Of the blessings of Heaven on the Spirit that beam
When the keen eye of faith can look up and see Through earths clouds, a bright glimpse blessed Saviour of Thee
